

Industry-leading service from transactional insurance's most experienced and dedicated team

Euclid Transactional is a market-leading firm specializing in representations and warranties, tax, contingent liability, and other transactional insurance products. Driven by a focus on deal execution and a commercial approach, our underwriting and claims management services offer best-in-class experience for clients, counsel, and brokers.

Transactional insurance's most experienced team

Euclid Transactional has underwritten over 6,200 policies and insured more than $4.95 trillion in total deal value – among the highest in the industry. The firm attracts and retains top talent and has built a team of over 140 professionals across North America and Europe that collectively have the most transactional experience in the industry.

Responsive, Efficient, Commercial

Your deal is important to you, and we know it. Our firm's professionals work in a dedicated, fast-paced manner to meet the needs and timeline of any deal. The team provides efficient service and well-reasoned decisions to provide the best commercial results for policies.

Superior claims service and security

Our claims team – the largest dedicated team in the transactional insurance space – leverages deep experience in both underwriting and claims to drive towards fair resolutions. Backed by the financial security of our highly rated insurance carrier partners, we have helped facilitate paid losses of over $780 million in claims payments.

Global Expertise

Led by a team of industry-leading experts in M&A and Insurance, the firm has provided coverage in 70 jurisdictions across North America, Europe, the Middle East and Africa with offices in New York, London, Chicago, Frankfurt, Copenhagen, Stockholm, Dublin, Singapore, Toronto, and Paris. Our global team has deep legal, M&A, and tax knowledge.
